

UNPACK YOUR ADJECTIVES

In 4 5
4 SHULIE:

Got home from camp-ing last spring.

6

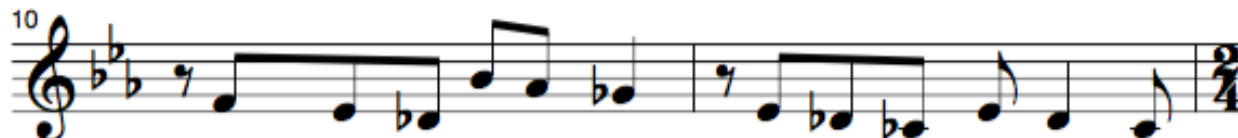

Saw peo - ple, pla - ces, and things.

8

We bare - ly had ar - rived,

10

friends asked us to de-scribe the peo-ple, pla-ces, and 12

ev - 'ry last thing. _____

So we un-packed our ad-jec-tives.

DINA:

I un-packed "frus - trat - ing" first. —

Reached in and found the word "worst." —

Then I picked "sog-gy" and next I picked "fog-gy" and then I was read - y to tell them my tale —

— 'cause I'd un-packed my ad-jec-tives.

Ad - jec - tives are words you use to real-ly des-cribe — things, hand-y words to car-ry a-round.

— Days are sun-ny, or they're rain-y. Kids are dumb or else they're brain - y.
